The Association will endeavor to communicate any changes in a timely fashion, typically in a written supplement to the handbook or Employee communication. If you have any questions about any of the policies or procedures in this handbook, please consult with your immediate supervisor, or general manager. Please understand that no employee handbook can address every situation

Vacation time is accrued throughout the year: the Association allows employees to use against what we will earn for the year ahead. The entire balance of your leave is available at the beginning of the year. Therefore, if you resign before the year is fulfilled, you will be paid out what you have accrued for your vacation leave.

Upon resignation any employee retiring with the company will be paid for accrued and unused vacation when you resign from the Association when appropriate notice is provided. The accrued amount will be prorated monthly, based on the amount of time you worked for the year.

Requests for the timing of vacations will be honored to the extent that continuity of service is maintained. Management does have the right to refuse vacation if conditions warrant. Vacation days do not accumulate and will be forfeited if not taken in the year following the date they are awarded.

Voting Leave:

If your work schedule prevents you from voting on Election Day, the Association will allow you a reasonable time off to vote. The time when you can go to vote will be at the discretion of your immediate supervisor, consistent with applicable legal requirements.

Attendance

You are expected to be on the job, ready to work, when scheduled. If an employee cannot work their scheduled hours or cannot be at work on time, they are to call the Association as soon as possible and preferably no later than one hour after their work schedule begins. If you know ahead of time that you will be absent or late, provide reasonable advance notice to your immediate supervisor. You may be required to provide documentation of any medical or other excuse for being absent or late where permitted by applicable law.

The Association reserves the right to apply unused vacation, sick time, or other paid time off to unauthorized absences where permitted by applicable law. Absences resulting from approved leave, vacation, or legal requirements are exceptions to the policy.

Dependable attendance is of critical importance to the effective operation of the Association, and employees should be aware that even legitimate absence, such as sick leave, can become excessive. Excessive absenteeism or tardiness will be determined by the appropriate supervisor considering the nature of the job. Excessive absenteeism will be subject to disciplinary action as explained in the "Discipline" section to follow.

If you fail to show up for work or fail to call in with an acceptable reason for the absence for a period of three consecutive days, you will be considered to have abandoned your job and voluntarily resigned from Golden Belt Telephone, Assoc., Inc.

Communications

Internal communication and coordination are encouraged in all directions to improve productivity. For operational matters, employees should communicate upward through their immediate supervisor. Supervisors are expected to be accessible and open to their staff's input and communication needs.

In case of a difficulty or a disagreement with a supervisor, the employee has the right of appeal to the next highest level without the supervisor's notification or presence.

No supervisor or manager should hear an employee's problem without confirmation that the proper channels have been followed.

Safety And Health

It is a priority of the Association to provide a safe working environment for its employees and to maintain reasonable safeguards to protect public life and property. Management shall provide an ongoing program to educate the staff regarding safety regulations and procedures.

If an employee has a chronic or life-threatening illness and wishes to continue working, management will see that they are treated consistently with other employees. They may continue working as long as they are able to meet acceptable performance standards and by medical evidence, are not determined to be a medical or safety threat to themselves or others.

Workers who are injured on the job should report their injury to management as soon as possible and may be eligible for benefits under the State Worker's Compensation Laws. The Association also maintains a long-term disability policy for workers that is described under "Benefits" in this manual.

Vehicle and Equipment Use

All motorized vehicles owned by the Association are to provide operational services for the Association and are not to be used for personal use unless approved by the General Manager. For liability reasons, only Association employees may ride in the vehicles. Employees assigned a vehicle are responsible for its safe operation and maintenance. Maintenance expenditures in excess of $50.00 must be approved by the appropriate supervisor.

The company will run pre-employment Motor Vehicle Reports (MVR) to ensure that employees who drive a company vehicle meet standards for eligibility. The Association will also run MVR's annually thereafter, to ensure continued eligibility of insurance coverage.

Drugs and Alcohol

All employees are prohibited from the use, possession, sale, or influence of any controlled substance on Association premises or work location. Employees on medication prescribed by a physician must notify their supervisor of its use. In the event that illegal substances are found to be involved, the Association will cooperate fully with law enforcement agencies.

With reasonable suspicion in the above areas, the Association reserves the right to: 1) search a person, their personal effects, lockers, and vehicles; 2) request that the employee submit to medical tests to be determined by approved testing facilities. Failure to cooperate will be treated as serious insubordination and implied guilt. Any related criminal conviction, on or off the job, will result in serious disciplinary action or discharge.

Nepotism

In order to ensure fairness, objectivity, and lack of interpersonal conflict, no two (2) members of an immediate family may work for the Association. "Immediate family" is defined to include aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, in-laws and first cousins. Unless prior authorization is passed by the Board of Directors.

Discipline

Disciplinary action may be required to either 1) unintentional inefficiency, or 2) willful misconduct. Inefficiency is the inability to perform a task reasonably related to the job or assigned by the supervisor. Misconduct is refusal to comply with position descriptions, defined policies, or supervisory assignments. In either case, the following procedure should be followed realizing that it is not progressive and that any step of the procedure can be initiated depending on the seriousness of the violation.

- Step One: Coach and counsel the employee as to the desired behavior or outcome.
- Step Two: When an employee cannot improve or will not change their behavior, a written statement will be issued and discussed with them. It will contain a minimum: 1) the problem(s), 2) the desired change or outcome, 3) the deadline for compliance, and 4) the consequences of non-compliance.
- Step Three: Termination of Employment.

Steps Two and Three above cannot be implemented without approval by the next highest level of supervision. The Association also reserves the right to have an employee leave the premises, with or without pay, for further consideration of a disciplinary or terminating action.

This does not exhaust all possibilities of offenses warranting discipline, rather lists action items as a result of unintentional inefficiency or willful misconduct.
